San Antonio Fair Commissioner Compliments the Activity of El Paso.

In an El Paso dispatch, printed yesterday morning under the heading 'El Paso Supports Fair: cooperation of Gate City is promised San Antonio for 1918 Exposition," the San Antonio Express prints the following:

"El Paso at San Antonio in 1918 for the International exposition was pledged lonight to George F. Ington, special commissioner from the exposition, who pursed through here on his way to San Ernetisco.

"Mayor Tom Lon, president R. h. Orndorff of the chamber of commerce, and other prantoner ettlisens, who met

"Mayor Tom Lea, president II. B. Gradorff of the chamber of commerce, and other prominent citizens, who met Mr. Lupton assured him that El Paso would be found doing its part when the time comes.

"In the short time Mr. Lupton had here he'declared El Paso certainly should be representated and certainly would be, judging from the wonderful growth of the city since he saw it lass about eight years ago.

"A sity that can increase its population from 35,000 in 1900 to 71,000 and but count the suburbs, by 1916, is certainly not a city that will fall to be represented in an exposition like we
